Powder Horn 1949

Powder Horn

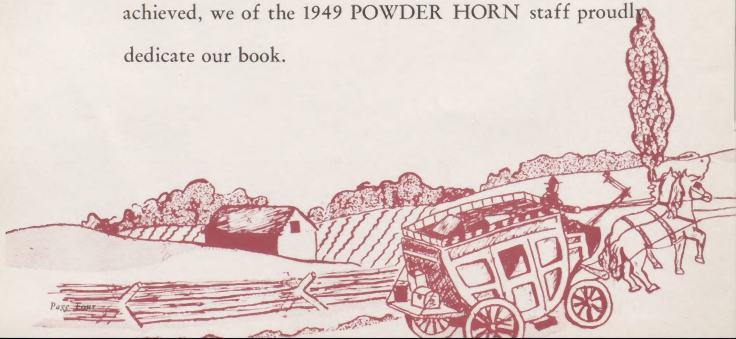

Dedication . . . Little did man realize when he first use the log as a primitive means of rolling heavy stones, that he was establishing the first in a long series of evolutionary processes which would in time enable trains and automobiles to fly across rails and highways at speeds far beyond his remotest conception.

To those who have preceded us and laid the foundation for all that Twentieth Century man has been able to accomplish, and to those who will follow us, making our lives even richer through the further development of what we have thus far achieved, we of the 1949 POWDER HORN staff proudly dedicate our book.

Forward . . .

1949 . . . Last year in a decade, last in half a century; a time when we should consider past achievements. One backward look is sufficient to see what great progress has been made in every field of human endeavor.

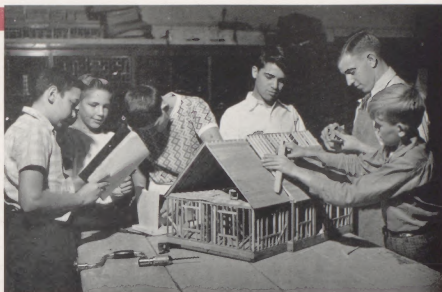

Because we of the 1949 Powder Horn staff are acutely aware of the tremendous advances made in these past years in every facet of our culture, we have tried to bring to light the thing that has been the basic factor in these accomplishments .

In progress probably no one invention has had more influence than the wheel. History owes much to this ingenious contrivance, and through it we are to see miraculous advancement in the future. In choosing the evolution of the wheel as our central theme, we have tried to catch some of the spirit of this progress.

Personalities . . . Attaining a sense of individual responsibility is an ultimate goal for each Clark student. The classes he attends and all of the persons with whom he daily comes in contact, help to develop his character and his cultural background. These lead him to realize goals higher than his own, which may be achieved for the benefit of all.

Bringing together many diverse personalities and subjecting them to expert guidance and wholesome companionship creates material from which may be built the most valuable citizens of the future.

Clark's personalities, functioning with a co-operative community spirit, represent a real, driving force, which makes our wheels go 'round.

PRINCIPAL
R. B. Miller

Administration . . . With Principal R. B. Miller at the Pilot Wheel, GRC has enjoyed smooth, firm, imaginative handling of its administrative functions and operating problems. Mr. Miller has been the principal of Clark since it was founded in 1932, and it has been largely due to his efforts during these past seventeen years that Clark has moved steadily toward the high standing it now maintains.

Guidance Counselors . . .

Miss Pearl Yocham and Mr. Paul Wilkinson together share the office of guidance counselor. For their helpful advice and encouragement to all students in the planning of their courses, and for the counseling of graduating seniors, on their choice of vocation or college, they deserve the thankfulness felt by all. In this most important task, the guiding of all curricular activities of Clark students, our counselors have shown both zeal and proficiency.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Lee L. Caldwell, (superintendent)
 Mr. Walter Thornton, (president)
 Mr. Charles N. Scott, (secretary)
 Mr. Columbus Smith, (treasurer)
 Dr. Henry Eggers
 Mr. Archie Spoerner

Board of Education . . . The Board of Trustees, under the capable direction of Superintendent Lee L. Caldwell, has a great deal of influence on every student's school life. Through its direction of school funds for the entire Hammond system, the board has made it possible for Clark to use facilities which provide both educational and recreational benefits.

Office Staff . . . Mrs. Mabel Brown, Miss Elsie McCrea and Mrs. Patricia Sheets constitute Clark's office staff. Their skill, friendliness and willingness to be of service to the students and faculty provide a pleasant atmosphere that will long be remembered.

FACULTY

ENGLISH

Miss Harriette Shoemaker, Mr. Gerald Royer, Miss Oza Cunningham, Miss Harriet Lake.

SCIENCE

Miss Veva McAtee, Miss Elizabeth Lyle, Mr. Edwin Martin.

It has been largely through the work of its excellent teaching staff, that Clark has been able, year after year, to turn out graduates best equipped to meet the demand of adult life.

We may look to our faculty with pride, not only because it functions harmoniously as a unit, but also for the close co-operation it achieves in its work with each student.

Seven new instructors joined the Clark faculty at the start of the year. They include Miss Mary Louise Collins, Mr. Frank Concialdi, Mrs. Doris Fuller, Mr. David Hein, Miss Patricia Hilliard, Mr. Alvin Peterson and Mr. Gerald Royer. At the beginning of the second semester two more new teachers took their places on the GRC staff. They are Miss Betty Mansfield and Miss Marie Nordvig.

THE SENIOR CLASS

1946 . . . The wheels of progress began rolling for the '49ers when Miss Emily Johnson was appointed class sponsor. Driving the covered wagon at the start of their journey was Darrel Quigley, president; assisted by Lodie Labda, vice-president; Mary Pappas, secretary; and Paul Wetnight, treasurer. Their first stop was the dance, "The Babies' Bawl," which indicated their soon to be famous team of spirit and skill.

1947 . . . Emerging triumphantly from first year difficulties, they pushed forward under the leadership of Fred Eberly, president, Norman Banas, vice-president; Evelyn Latiak, secretary; and Art Clark, treasurer. "Seek and ye shall find" was appropriately chosen the class motto. Revealing their appreciation for beauty, they selected the American Beauty rose as their flower and red and silver as their colors.

1948 . . . After a two year period of traveling, the class established its settlement. Town officials elected were: George Argus, president, Louis Biedron, vice-president; Betty Zehme, secretary; and Conway Hotchkiss, treasurer. A community shindig, "The Breather," was held to celebrate their safe arrival. Heralding their third anniversary, they promenaded at "Symphony in Gold," and presented the comedy, "Nothing But the Truth."

1949 . . . Re-electing George Argus president, the colony also chose Jim Figler vice-president, Roberta Cherechinsky secretary, and John Hertzfeldt treasurer. They gave their second dramatic production, "Our Town," followed by a December dance, "White Magic." The true Pioneer spirit returned, however, and restlessness dominated the little group. Seeking adventure and future happiness, they moved forward toward new horizons.

Standing: George Argus (president), John Hertzfeldt (treasurer), Jim Figler (vice-president).

Seated: Roberta Cherechinsky (secretary), Miss Emily Johnson (sponsor).

THE HUB OF THE WHEEL

Miss Emily E. Johnson

When several people wish to function harmoniously as a group, a prime requisite is someone who can lead and advise them. So it is when a class enters high school. Before it can begin to act as a body, it must have the guidance and advice of a sponsor. The appointment of Miss Emily E. Johnson to guide the Class of 1949 proved, as time progressed, to be the one factor most directly responsible for its success.

Through her natural friendliness and desire to help, Miss Johnson became the friend of every class member. Rather than standing in awe of their sponsor, they came to love and respect her. In general, as 1949 draws to a close, the Seniors find that through their acquaintance with her, they are richer and more understanding toward those around them—better qualified to take their places as adults in the demanding world of the future.

Junior Play . . .

"Nothing But the Truth," a three act comedy by James Montgomery, proved to be a real success when produced by the Class of '49. With a complete double cast, it was presented on April 29-30, 1949.

The plot revolved around a young man who bet a friend that he could tell the absolute truth for 24 hours. He tried to conceal this from his fiancee, getting himself into some very trying situations.

The cast could not have put forth this successful production without the efforts of Miss Oza Cunningham, dramatics director; Miss Beatrice Northstrum, art supervisor; Mr. Darwin Eret, orchestra director; the stage production staff; and Miss Emily Johnson, class sponsor, who managed the business affairs.

MABLE TELLS HER STORY:

TOP: TO EACH HIS OWN!

BOTTOM: ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL!

Senior Play . . . "Our Town,"

a modern dramatic classic, made Clark history, as the '49ers again displayed their talent. Staged in three acts, the play provided both laughter and tears. Rollin Shoemaker, as the stage manager, explained throughout the play, the background, setting and characters of the little New Hampshire town, Grover's Corners. The first act was centered about a typical day in the life of its residents, and the second involved the love and marriage of Emily Webb and George Gibbs, the two central characters. The last act showed acceptance of death and awaiting of the unknown.

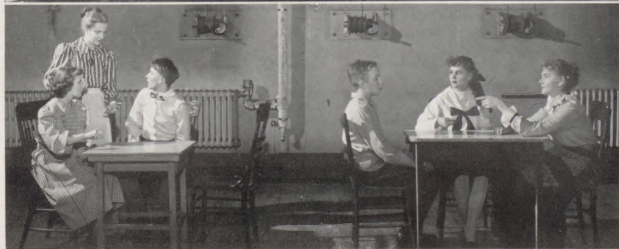

Under Miss Oza Cunningham's able direction, the Senior class left an unforgettable mark in the history of the school and the community.

PUPPY LOVE?

TOP: UNTIL DEATH DO US PART!

BOTTOM: CHILDREN, EAT YOUR BREAKFAST!

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENTS AND THEIR DATES.

Junior Prom . . . With an attendance double that of nine years ago and the largest prom in Clark's history, the Class of '49 presented "Symphony in Gold" at Madura's Danceland on May 28, 1948.

The 180 couples danced from nine to twelve p. m. to the music of Johnny Kay and his orchestra. Miniature gun and holster sets were passed out as souvenirs to those attending this formal affair.

Junior and Senior class officers and their dates led the grand march which highlighted the evening.

Activities . . . Activities at Clark permit the development of students interests. In their favorite groups students learn to cooperate and can find the true meaning of democracy. The responsibilities of participation and leadership are necessities in each student's life. There is much value to be gained from the satisfaction of having worked together and achieved a common goal. Students are encouraged to join and become active partisans in the many worthwhile clubs and organizations at GRC. Truly it is the active members of these groups that push the wheels of Clark to a greater spirited progress.

Standing: Wilson (president), Phillip (corresponding secretary), Tiscone (recording secretary), Arauz (vice-president), Davidson (librarian), Economou.

Future Teachers of America . . . GRC established another record by organizing the first Future Teachers of America group in the city of Hammond. This club was organized for those students at Clark who intend to enter the teaching profession after completing their education. Miss Pearl Yocham guided the club through its first successful year.

Among the projects the group undertook were teaching part time in the elementary grades, telling stories over the radio and at the branch libraries and sponsoring an educational film for a student assembly.

National Honor Society

Character, scholarship, leadership and service are four essential spokes in the wheel of life. They also comprise the qualities necessary for eligibility to membership in the National Honor Society. Under the direction of Miss Pearl Yocham, the NHS was composed of 15 per cent of the Senior class and 5 per cent of the Junior class. These students are selected by a vote of the faculty each year.

Members of the Class of '49 elected in their junior year include Bruce Cox, president; Mary Pappas, secretary-treasurer; and Roy Wilson, vice-president.

Student Council . . . The hub around which student legislation revolves is the Student Council. This 48 member group consists of representatives from the junior and senior high homerooms. Under the direction of Bruce Cox, president; Ed Svitek, vice-president; Mary Pappas, secretary; and Paul Wetnight, treasurer; it began its activities early in the school year. Through the work of the council, Clark became the "foster parent" of two schools in Bremen, Germany, supplying them with a few material necessities of progressive education—a small step toward international understanding.

A dance committee consisting of five student members planned a calendar of dances to be presented by various classes and organizations during the year.

Among the other functioning committees were the safety committee and the committee appointed to organize and plan a booklet describing the numerous and varied extra-curricular activities available to Clark students.

Student Panel... The imaginary wheel of judicial government advanced, through the cooperation of students and faculty, from the crude stage of mere thinking to the modern one of efficient judgment for wayward students.

A panel consisting of 85 students, which was directed by Student Council Vice-president Ed Svitek, acted as a court in trials for cases of tardiness, absenteeism and other misdemeanors. Two leaders were appointed for each period and included George Argus and Gloria Darby, first period; Wilma Ellington and Evelyn Latiak, second period; Sheila Goldstein and Mary Pappas, third period; Geraldine Obuch and Joe Wichlinski, fourth period; Lodie Labda and Gloria Lukas, fifth period; Erwin Campbell and Raleigh Vobach, sixth period; and Fred Eberly and Bill Ringgenberg, seventh period.

This form of representative government provides an opportunity for a large number of students to participate in the disciplinary phase of school administration and promotes a greater sense of responsibility.

Forum Club . . .

Guest speakers, movies and discussions were presented this year by the Forum Club, under the direction of Mr. Arthur Erickson.

Outstanding programs of the year included Miss Elma Kahn, Clark kindergarten teacher, who told the group of her trip to Europe the previous summer; Mr. Erickson, who discussed the experiences of his trip to Alaska; and Miss Martha Labda, who presented an account of her nursing work with the Navajo Indians.

A series of documentary and commercial films depicting various social situations and attitudes was shown to the group as background material for their work in modern problems.

Y-Teens . . . The Y-Teens again came through with a successful year. The club maintained its high standards and fulfilled its slogan, "To face life squarely," and its purpose, "To find and give the best. Any Clark girl who is a sophomore, junior or senior is eligible for membership in this organization.

Row 1: Quigg, Cherechinsky, Young, Kaban, Goldstein, Evans, Foster, Bodnar, Endres, Isberg, Snell, Snyder, Kubicko, Lelito, Yurkanin.

 Row 3: Fitzpatrick, Lynch, Butcher, Patrick, Gleason, Miller, Ashcraft, Sencik, Condo, Richter, Vladika, Ustanik, Poppen, Danko, Inman.

Since the theme of the club is service, the girls were requested to complete at least one project in order to make themselves worthy members of the organization. A merit point system proved successful in determining attendance, committee work and voluntary jobs. Upon receiving 150 points the girls were presented with a club pin.

The group accomplished a great deal under the leadership of Mary Pappas, president; Ella Rhee Kissen, vice-president; Evelyn Latiak, secretary; Juanita Freeman, treasurer; Altha Brown and Margaret Kristoff, members-at-large; and Miss Margaret Ide, sponsor. Miss Leah Booth, Mrs. Rebekah Eddy and Miss Edna Howe, faculty members, gave their time to help the girls with their work.

Some of the projects of the year included the collection of clothes for the people of Europe; the sale of "forget-me-nots"; the distribution of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets; the making of an afghan, mittens and a PTA blanket; and the presentation of the annual Easter assembly.

This year the initiation services and the annual picnic were combined and held in October as a beach party. Other important events sponsored by the group were the Y-Teen dance, a Hi-Y and Y-Teen banquet and a Y-Teen conference held here at Clark. Through this last function the girls became more closely associated with girls from other schools in the Calumet region.

Library Club . . . Attending weekly classes in library instruction, mending and shelving books, taking library and study hall attendance and writing over-due book notices are all manifestations of the main objective of the Library Club — service.

The club's annual Christmas party, held on December 16, 1948, was highlighted by an exchange of gifts and the sponsoring of the library Christmas tree.

During Book Week the library displayed a group of new books purchased with a one hundred dollar gift of the Class of 1948.

This year the group participated in the annual magazine drive and sold greeting cards as fund raising projects. The larger part of the money raised by the Library Club was used for the purchase of books.

Row 1: Miss Harriet Lake (sponsor), Seliger, Kowalski, Merko, Peters, Nisle, Klee, Pappas, Ault, Pavelchak, Arauz, Rolph.

Art Club . . . Evidence of progress may be seen by the modernistic type of pictures and designs which adorn the walls of the art room. Most of these were done by members of the Art Club, sponsored by Miss Beatrice Northstrum.

Competition entered by the club members included the American Legion Poppy Poster Contest, the "Scholastic" Art Contest, and the Lake County Contest.

With Constance Smith as president; Marlene Fehrman, vice-president; Lola Zeleznik, secretary; and Frances Slater, treasurer, the group worked on original Christmas cards and sponsored a Mardi Gras dance with a Sadie Hawkins Day theme to raise funds.

Sitting: Manson, Valiska, Adams, Zagrocki, Bodnar, Evans, Hunter, Brzycki, Sanusky, Hrapchak.

Standing: King, Soltis, Fasiang, Zahrndt, Budzius, Kalbac, Shields, Koleszarik, Walko, Snarich, Matalik, Smerek, Tumidalsky.

Standing: Mrs. Rebekah Eddy (sponsor), Gauger, Uhles, DeSutter, Fisher, McCrea, Bussies, Blatnick, Bornejko, Golubiewski (president), Hruskovich, Gray, Beidron, Horwath, Jendzel, Stavros.

Latin Club . . . Coming in first in the annual magazine drive, the four Latin Clubs, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Rebekah Eddy, Latin instructor, enjoyed a full and varied program for the year.

The highlight of the entire year was the presentation of the comic opera "Julius Caesar" as a student assembly in March.

The group, made up of members of the first and second year Latin classes, sold Clark pins and scarves to raise funds, which were used, along with those obtained through the magazine sales, to purchase Latin film strips and slides.

Spanish Club . . . When members of the Spanish Club, guided by Miss Hazel Holland, begin a conversation with "Como esta usted?" it is evident that progress is being made in the study of the language and quaint customs of our Latin American neighbors.

Writing letters to boys and girls in Mexico and Central and South America was one of the projects the members of the club completed. Playing games, singing, dancing and reading the Spanish newspaper "LaLuz" were activities enjoyed during the regular monthly meetings.

Students of both classes attended a fiesta at Hammond High School in the early part of the year and the club wound up its activities with a Spanish dinner consisting of hot tamales, tacos, tostados, enchiladas and leche.

Physics Club . . . In a rapidly changing world of jet propulsion, radar and atomic power, the Physics Club has become of paramount importance to its members.

The Phys-Kids, as the club is popularly known, under the guidance of Raleigh Vobach, president, and Mr. Edwin Martin, sponsor, provided educational recreation for its members through experiments and trips. Movies, special reports and discussions played a prominent role in the bi-weekly meetings of the club.

During the course of the year, the members traveled to the Museum of Science and Industry, where demonstrations and explanations of several principles of physics were conducted.

Row 6: Barnett, Helm, Miller, Wetnight, Kozak, Horwath, Girman, Caveresko, Fisher, Bussis, Ingraham.

Hi-Y . . . As it has always done in the past, the Hi-Y worked hard this year to fulfill its theme and purpose, "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian living."

Three important conferences were attended by members during the year. The first of these was the Fall conference held in LaPorte in November. In December several boys traveled to Evansville for the State Hi-Y conference. In the Spring they attended the District conference in Michigan City.

Bruce Cox fulfilled his duties as president for the year. The other officers included George Argus, vice-president; Richard McClaughry, secretary; Jack Piotrowski, treasurer; and Mr. Paul Wilkinson, sponsor.

Again this year the Hi-Y held Easter services which the boys conducted themselves. In January they held a joint meeting with the Gary Roosevelt Hi-Y group and presented Mr. J. Ben Duff, associate state secretary of the YMCA, at an assembly for the school. They also continued their milk and pop sales as another service to the school.

Sitting: Cherechinsky, True, Lukas, Latiak (co-editor), Blastic (co-editor), Svitek.
Standing: Freeman, Fitzpatrick, Hanchar, Harms, Young, Kowalski, Evans, Goldstein, Kissen, Mullins, Catchur, Smith, Kubicko, Kubayko, Mr. Gerald Royer (sponsor).
Top Row: Economou, Rankin, Hrapchak, Kosier, Bergman, Phillip, Gray.

Pioneer News . . . This year the Pioneer News showed marked progress as it moved into its sixteenth year of publication. Guided by Mr. Gerald Royer, sponsor, the 29 member staff proved to be the largest in the history of Clark.

The paper obtained its twelfth All-American rating from the National Scholastic Press Association. A ten-page Christmas issue and special April Fool edition highlighted the year.

A new mimeograph machine was put into use in December and in May the PN sponsored a literary supplement, printing the best manuscripts turned in by students.

Powder Horn . . . Wheels indicate communication . . . communication in turn denotes the transfer of thoughts, opinions and recent events . . . thus the 1949 Powder Horn carries out the theme of wheels, bringing GRC into the news.

Sheila Goldstein headed the staff assisted by George Argus, business manager, and Gloria Lukas, circulation manager. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Gerald Royer, the Powder Horn got off to an early start with the senior pictures taken in September and an equally effective schedule for all other pictures and data. A total of 560 subscriptions was reached.

Other staff members included Evelyn Latiak and Nancy Young, class editors; Donna Kaban and Ella Rhee Kissen, club and organization editors; Ed Svitek, sports editor; Beverly Blastic and Pat Kowalski, special feature editors; Dorothy Arauz, photography editor; Karyle Evans, staff artist; Zita Catchur and Gordon Smith, sports writers; Altha Brown, Roberta Cherechinsky, Marjory Elo, Pat Fitzpatrick, Bonnie Harms, Mary Kubicko and JoAnn True, feature writers; Wilma Ellington, Esther Hanchar, Margaret Kristoff and Angeline Striko, typists; and Roberta Cherechinsky, Noble Clark, Elaine Endres, Wilma Ellington, Juanita Freeman, John Hertzfeldt, Rosemarie Isberg, Richard McClaughry, Mary Pappas, Bill Ringgenberg, Joe Wichlinski, Roy Wilson and Nancy Young, advertising agents.

National Forensic League . . . The Clark speech team carried out a full season of participation in poetry reading; radio speaking; dramatic, humorous, oratorical and original declamation; and extemporaneous speaking.

The outstanding meets of the year included the district individual speaking contest held here at Clark, the state meet at Bloomington, Indiana, and the National Forensic League tournament at Peru, Indiana.

Members of the group participated in both the American Legion and the Rotary Club original oratory contests, with Ella Rhee Kissen placing first in the Legion's district competition. Raleigh Vobach qualified for the NFL National Contest at Longmont, Colorado, by placing first in extemporaneous speaking in Indiana.

Many individuals were called upon by other organizations to perform in programs, and the team, directed by Mr. Arthur Erickson, presented a March assembly for the student body.

On Stage: Eberly, Kubicko, Goldstein, Cox, Swenson.

Standing: Mr. Arthur Erickson (sponsor), Blatnicky, Cravens, Kissen, Lynn, Brown, Vobach, Adams, McClaughry.

Seated: Wretzky, Green.

Debate . . . The very timely question, "Resolved: That the United Nations now be revised into a federal world government," was argued by Clark's debate team this year. Under the direction of Mr. Arthur Erickson, the varsity and "B" squad participated in over 200 debates during the season.

Highlights of the year were contest trips to Winnetka, LaGrange and Aurora, Illinois. By winning in regional competition, the team qualified, with seven other Indiana schools to vie for the state title at North Manchester, Indiana. Clark also participated in the Calumet and Metropolitan debate leagues. Several members of the group journeyed to West Lafayette, Indiana, for the Purdue Conference and Legislative Assembly in December.

The varsity was composed of Ella Rhee Kissen and Raleigh Vobach, affirmatives, and Sheila Goldstein and Caroline Swenson, negatives, while Dick Cravens served as an alternate.

A junior high debate contest was the most important project carried out by the high school team. The purpose was to increase the younger pupils' interest in debate.

 Standing: Manson, Cannon, Hein, Zack, Sparks, Sterbavy, Nivle, Benko, Adams, Benak, Zvijak, Miss Harriette Shoemaker (sponsor), Skrabak, Pazdur, Blasko, Stanton, Harms.

Junior Red Cross . . . Under the sponsorship of Miss Harriette Shoemaker, the Junior Red Cross began the year with their annual membership drive.

The 60 members of the club undertook various service projects which kept them busy for the remainder of the year. Gift boxes were sent overseas and to families in the Calumet region at Christmas. Members knitted squares for an afghan and sent playing cards, scrap books and New Haven slippers to several hospitals in this area.

Under the leadership of Caroline Swenson, president, the club presented an original assembly and held a dance in May. Caroline was aided in her duties by Beverly Blastic, vice-president; Pat Klee, secretary; and Zita Catchur, treasurer.

Service Club . . .

Under the supervision of Miss Ellen Viney, the Service Club had charge of elementary grade pupils who brought their lunches. With the addition of our new cafeteria, the members took the job of helping the younger students with their trays.

Row 1: Quigg, Sutherland, Kamin, Buncek.

Row 2: Stolarz, Jerzyk.

Row 3: Burash, Slater.

Safety Patrol . . .

Under the co-sponsorship of Mr. Edwin Martin and Mr. Alvin Peterson, the patrol boys gave much of their time to guide students safely across the streets. Some of the members were assigned to hall patrol during the noon hour. As a reward for their work, the Chicago Motor Club gave a party in the Spring for all patrol boys in this region.

After two years of service the members of both organizations receive letters monograms.

Row 1: Burkey, Measuron, Smith, Walker, Lunsford, Hoagland, Truver, Smriga, Kenes, Odgobinak, Fruehling, Kreiger, J. Ranostaj, Mr. Edwin Martin (sponsor), Williams, Christof.

The Band . . . The George Rogers Clark High School band, under the direction of Mr. Carlyle Snider, began another successful year by playing and marching at the home football games. Their rhythmical music and outstanding formations added a spirit of pep to the games.

On January 19 the 66 piece outfit presented an unusual and entertaining "pop" concert. February 19 found them journeying to Hobart, Indiana, to attend the annual District Solo and Ensemble contest. Seven soloists and three ensembles returned with first-division ratings. These students also participated in the State Solo and Ensemble contest held at Indianapolis on March 26. This competition netted the Clark band members three firsts.

A pep band, consisting of several band members, added color to the basketball games in our own gym and at the Civic Center.

Mr. Carlyle Snider

The Orchestra . . . Under the leadership of Mr. Darwin Eret, the Clark orchestra performed for the Junior and Senior plays, the annual concert given with the choral groups and Commencement exercises.

The string group, consisting of about forty pieces, is joined by woodwinds and brass players from the band because as yet the orchestra has no brasses of its own.

A string ensemble, made up of five orchestra members, Al Blahunka, Gloria Darby, Elaine Pavelchak, Leo Sredzinski and Bill Ullrich entertained during the year at both school and many outside activities.

Row 4: Rankin, Ford, McKibben, Olenus.
Row 5: Freeman, Catchur, Zajac, Blood.
Row 6: Lewis, Murzyn, Pinkston.

Vocal Music . . . Any student interested in singing is eligible to join one of the many vocal music organizations. Under the direction of Miss Wilma Range, the groups include the Choir, the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club, the Mixed Chorus, the Treble Clef, the Triple Trio and the Double Sextet. All of these groups except the Triple Trio and the Double Sextet meet during regular school hours.

MIXED CHORUS AND BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Row 1: Kowalski, Hawk, Popen, Obuch, Kristoff, Tkach, Olenus, Condo, Elo, Campbell, Sotak, Ultrich (librarian), Seliger, Ambord, Elster, Hlavach, Darby.

Standing: Bonds, Kosiba, Gulassa, Gleason, Potis, Ford, Pasyck, Volom, J. Saylor, Krysincki, Zubay (librarian), Miller (vice-president).

The year's program was varied according to each individual group. The Girls' Ensemble sang at the Methodist Church for the Young Peoples' League, at the PTA Christmas program and caroled in the school halls just before Christmas.

The Triple Trio and the Double Sextet brought honors from the District contest in Hobart, Indiana. Both of these groups sang for the Northern Indiana Art Patrons association.

All of the vocal music organizations sang in the annual winter concert given with orchestra, the Christmas assembly, the Musical review and the Hammond Music festival held in May.

Row 1: Mores, Hunter, Blood, Yurkanin, Zubay, Cunningham.

Row 2: Burnett, Vavrek, Bunckek, Chalko, Goldstein, Walker, Hanchar, Catchur, Paylo, Snyder, Byers.

Stage Crew . . .

Because an increasing number of organizations use the stage facilities at one time or another, it is necessary to have a dependable group of students to operate these. This year the Stage Crew, consisting of thirty members, was under the direction of Miss Oza Cunningham and student stage manager Don Zurbriggen.

"Service" being the motto of the group, the staff helped each sponsoring organization in every major production presented on the Clark stage.

Knowledge about stage setting, lighting and make-up was gained by Stage Crew members this year; and after completing a specific number of hours, they were eligible to receive letters.

Front: Horvath, Kaminsky, Whitworth, Christof, Seliger, Elster, Kubicko.

Back: Godshell, Hillman, Witt, Herberg, Snell, Latiak, Palenik, Hrapchak, Zurbriggen, Snyder, Richter, Hawk, Campbell.

Photography Club . . .

The Photography Club, to encourage the interest of amateur photographers, was begun in 1948 under the sponsorship of Mr. Frank Concialdi. The club, choosing Bill Ringgenberg as its president, spent the first semester in organization. After the necessary equipment was available, work on picture development was begun. As in the past, various students took shots of the games and objects of interest and turned them over to the Powder Horn staff. Pages have always been set aside for these shots, and it was primarily to further this project that the Photography Club was organized. The high point of the club's activity was the dance they presented on April 1.

Row 1: Jerzyk, Wretsky, Schlater, Wiley, Hunter, Vavrek, Brown, Soltis, Sterbavy.

Row 2: Murzyn, Kamin, Tisoncek, Byers, Horina, Ollo, Zehme, Hrapchak, Palenik, Hlavach, Dzurovcik, Ustanik.

Row 3: Polkington, Goginski, Inman, Gulassa, Dziengiel, Matye, Manson, M. Ullrich, Kubayko, Millo.

Row 4: Sredzinski, Ingraham, B. Ullrich, Campbell, Golding, Rolph, Adams, Shoemaker, Richter, Golden, McCoy, Seliger.

Athletics

. . . It is through athletics that the students of Clark are provided with the opportunity for developing character and ability - - essential factors in a successful adult life. Teamwork, an important part of any athletic activity, gives each participant a sense of responsibility not only toward his team and school, but also toward himself. Meeting representatives from other regional schools in athletic contests serves to build for each student that wholesome competitive attitude which he can later apply to the other phases of his life. Most important of all the benefits derived from athletics is the incomparable spirit which is felt by every student in the school. This is one of the things that everyone at Clark holds in common. It truly provides the lubricant to keep our wheels running smoothly.

Hrapchak,
Freeman,
Zehme,
Kowalski.

Cheerleaders . . . The varsity cheerleaders have a great deal of responsibility in backing Clark's team to victory. It is through their hard work and direction that the cheering section becomes a very important part of all athletic contests. For the football season the girls wore blue skirts and white sweaters. New uniforms of blue-fringed boleros and skirts with white blouses and blue moccasins added to the color of the Pioneer basketball season.

Majorettes . . . Fronting the band and performing with the group at football games are the important jobs of these girls. Dressed in white satin uniforms trimmed with gold braid, white hats and leather boots, the majorettes added a colorful note to the games. Pat Goginski, Shirley Inman and Pauline Murovich will be back to lead the band next year. Marianne Dzurovcik will graduate with the Class of '49.

Goginski,

Row 2: Kekelik, Sanusky, Galloway, P. Saylor, Raymond, Potts, Marilyn Blohm, Marlene Blohm, Campbell, Economou, Murzyn.

Row 3: Matalik, Ambord, Ollo, Gipson, Dudas, Zajac, Miller, Single, Radloff.

Row 4: Saliga, Hrapchak, MacLean, Hoff, Gryz-wana, E. Wiley, Gilman, Dzurovcik, DeSutter.

Row 5: Spisak, Sejna, Polkinghorn, Bergman, Mad-sen, Schlater, Seehausen, Sharp, Rosaschi, Pasyk.

Standing: Bonds, Tkach, Lewis, Pinkerton, Chirby, Duffala, Goldstein, Hadley, Jurbala, Kickenapp, Sparks, Rose Brazina, Snarich, Krause, Hill, Frank-lin, Filowski, Coonfare, Ganshaw.

Girls Athletic Club . . . Active participation in sports provides healthful recreation to Clark girls. The members of the GAC have the opportunity to take part in intramural baseball, basketball, bowling and volleyball.

The group was led by Betty Zehme, president; Ruth Brazina, vice-president; Janice Hrapchak, secretary; Margaret Furtyo, treasurer; and Mary Ann Palenik, head-of-sports. Miss Leota Kenzie, girls' physical education director, acted as sponsor.

As a service project the club members painted signs with the names and numbers of the basketball players and sold refreshments at our home basketball and football games.

Row 1: Svitek, Banas, J. Smith, Walendowski, Franklin (sergeant-at-arms), Siska (vice-president), A. Clark (secretary-treasurer).

Row 2: Rolph, Krause, Brenkus, Blahunka, Eberly, Labda, Helm.

Row 3: Jendzel, Figler, Campbell, Hotchkiss, Dzurovcik, A. Smith, Kuzminski, Bollhorst, E. Clark.

Row 4: Figuly, Catchur, Miles, Cox, Piotrowski, Vargo, Quigley, Andel.

Front: Wetnight (president), Mr. Arvo Antilla (sponsor).

C Club . . . The C Club, headed by Paul Wetnight, president, finished another eventful year.

The members played an important part at all home football games, selling programs to increase their treasury. As in the past, the club sponsored the annual "In and Out" game at the end of the basketball season and presented the movie, "Smith of Minnesota," as additional fund-raising projects.

On May 19 the club held its annual Father-and-Son Banquet at which time awards were presented to outstanding athletes by Coaches Arvo Antilla and Joe Franklin, co-sponsors of the group.

Norm Banas received a double honor in football when he was presented with both the mental attitude and the most valuable awards. Jack Barnett was the recipient of the mental attitude in basketball, while Mike Andel was named most valuable in this sport. The free throw award went to Norm Banas, who also was chosen to receive the C Club all-around award. Boys declared most valuable in the other sports were Oliver Campbell, wrestling; Ed Svitek, cross country; and Ralph Porter, track.

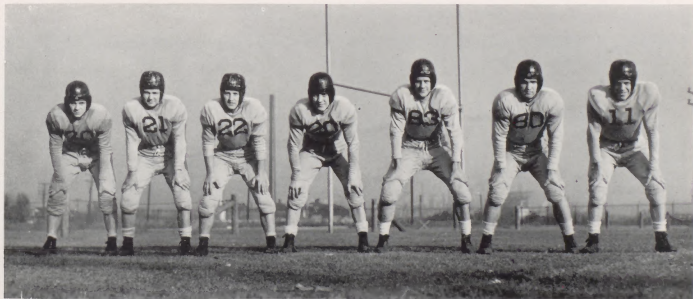

Varsity Football

Emerson Aldrich (ass't coach) and Arvo Antilla (coach)

Fred Krause and Al Blahunka (managers)

Halfbacks: E. Clark, Brenkus, Lourik, D. Vrabel, Walendowski, J. Smith (captain), Bollhoest.

Guards: Schochnecht, Vargo, A. Clark, Horwath, Krull.

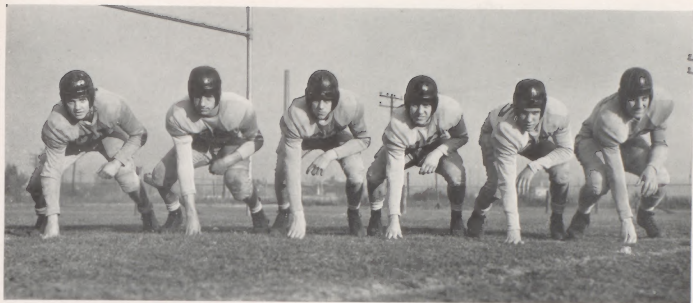

GRC's gridders started the season with the impressive record of five straight wins. The Antillamen went on to taste defeat, however, in their last four contests.

The Clark team was one of the lightest in the region, but what they lacked in weight was more than equalled in fighting spirit.

Clark's varsity began on the victory road by downing Gary Tolleston, 26-14. Then came Morgan Park, East Chicago Washington, and Hammond Tech, all of whom met defeat at the hands of the smooth-rolling Pioneer grid machine. The Blue-and-White eleven then journeyed to Marinette, Wisconsin, where it polished off the highly rated Marinette aggregation, 19-6.

Tackles: Dzurovcik, A. Smith, Gronowski, Piotrowski, Thompson.

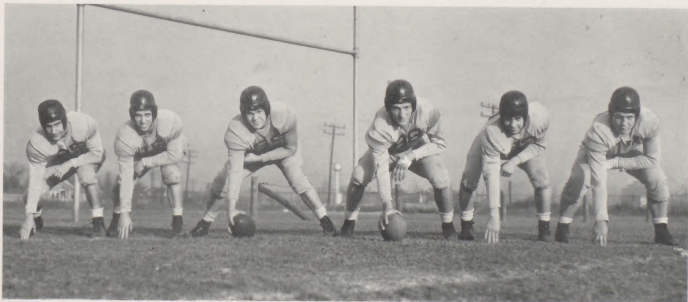

Ends: Dubeck, Franklin, Tiemersma, J. Vrabel, Drach, Hotchkiss.

Last year's state champs, East Chicago Roosevelt, finally broke the five game winning streak by shellacking the Clarksters, 20-0. The Pioneers lost their next tussle to Hammond High, but showed great spirit by holding the Whiting Oilers, NIHSC champions, to a mere 13 points. The Clarkites received their final defeat of the season in the Western division playoff game with Gary Tolleston, 14-7.

With ten members of the first team lost via graduation, next year's team will lack experience; however, it should prove to be a small and speedy outfit. Damon Franklin, end, will be the lone veteran, while backs Lyndell Bollhorst, Tony Brenkus, Earl Clark, Jonathan Kuzminski, John Leisge and Alex Lourik will carry the point making burden. The forward wall will be centered around Jerry Kozak.

Quarterbacks: Figler, Wetnight; Centers: Helm, Banas; Fullbacks: Siska, Kuzminski.

Varsity Basketball

Coach Ed Shields

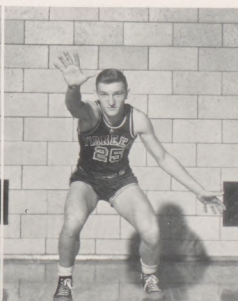

Even though the record of 12 wins and 11 losses for the Pioneer basketballers was not outstanding, a thorough check of the 1948-49 campaign shows that the Clarkites enjoyed a successful season.

The Blue-and-White reached the win column when it trounced a highly-touted Lew Wallace aggregation by a score of 51-34 in the Pioneer goalery. The boys from Robertsdale showed their fighting spirit and ability to come back when they embarked on a five game winning streak in the latter part of the season. Their victories included wins over such regional powerhouses as South Bend Washington, Gary Horace Mann, Hammond Tech and Gary Froebel.

Two decisive victories in the Hammond Sectional tournament definitely tagged the Pioneers as championship contenders. The Shieldsmen defeated Hammond Tech by a 42-39 score in the opening game of the sectional. They rolled over Noll Central, 81-43 before losing to Hammond High, state semi-finalists, by a score of 44-40.

Only three boys, Tony Brenkus, Damon Franklin and Jerry Kozak, will return to form the nucleus of next year's varsity quintet. The six varsity cagers who will be graduated in June are Mike Andel, Norm Banas, Jack Barnett, Lodie Labda, Don Vrael and Jim Vrael.

Clark's "B" squad, coached by Mr. David Hein, garnered a season's record of six wins and three losses. Some of the reserves who will undoubtedly lend their assistance to the Pioneer cause next year include Orest Catchur, Jerome Figuly, John Leisge, Alex Lourik, Kenneth Quisenberry, Eugene Rolph and Steve Stavros.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

Sitting: Figler, Barrix, Smith, Tkach, Udchitz, Poppen, Barosh, Meyers.

Standing: Schuhrke (manager), Sterbavy (manager), Carchur, McCrea, Quisenberry, Rolph, Ranostaj, Usselman, Dupin, Coaches David Hein and Emerson Aldrich.

Row 1: Johnson, Vargo, Matuskos, Soltis, Zahndt, Shields, Whitworth, Simon, Smith, McCoy, Tiemersma, Figuly, Senchak.

Row 3: Usselman, Horvath, Svitek, Doris, Rolph, Economou, Bollhorst, Andel, Wetnight, Franklin, Clark, Porter, Levitt, Isberg.

Track . . . With only five lettermen returning from last year's squad, the Pioneer cindermen experienced a mediocre season.

The Clarkites participated in eight outdoor meets and five indoor contests. Their outstanding indoor meets included the Indiana Invitational at Bloomington and the Howe High School meet at Purdue.

Several of the outstanding performers and their respective events are as follows: Bob Adams, 880-yard run; Mike Andel, quarter mile, broad jump and high jump; Lyndell Bollhorst, dashes; Earl Clark, dashes; Damon Franklin, shot put and quarter mile; Eugene Rolph, hurdles; Ed Svitek, mile run; Steve Vargo, shot put; Paul Wetnight, pole vault; and Dick Whitworth, hurdles.

The outstanding individual performance of the campaign was turned in by Paul Wetnight, who set a new Clark pole vault record with a jump of 11 feet 2 inches at the Hammond Invitational meet.

With several members of this year's squad returning to bolster next year's aggregation, Coach Joe Franklin can look forward to a successful season.

Row 1: Rolph, Zahrdt, Andel, Svitek, Labda, Adams, Whitworth, Senchak, Figuly, Utterback.

Standing: Ollis, Johnson, Domasica, McClaghry, Sturgeon, DeBruyn, Stavros, Usselman, Studer, Umlauf, McCarty, Ranostaj, Sciacero, Gasinski, Shields, Sinai, Barnett, Lissy, Schoon (manager), Coach Ed Shields.

Cross Country . . . Three wins and two losses. That was the record of the 1948 Pioneer harriers under the direction of Coach Ed Shields. Although the Blue-and-White thinly-clads did not show any team strength, they did find a capable performer in Senior Ed Svitek. Ed captured a first place in the Hobart Invitational meet and third and fifth places in the sectional and conference meets, respectively.

The future looks bright for the Clarkites, since five lettermen in the form of Bob Adams, Jerome Figuly, Richard Senchak, Dick Whitworth and Ed Zahrdt will return to bolster next year's squad. Ed Svitek will be the only member lost via graduation.

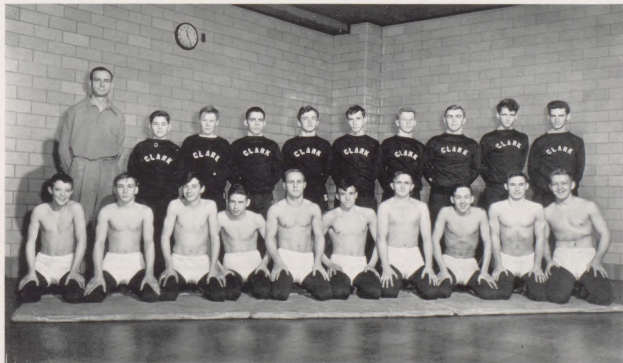

Wrestling . . . The GRC wrestlers completed this year's campaign with a record of three wins and eight losses. They won their first match by defeating Hammond Tech, 36-20. Their second and third victories were garnered at the expense of Muncie Central and Thornton Fractional, respectively.

The outstanding individual performance turned in by a Pioneer wrestler was the second place honor which Oliver Campbell gained in the state ratings of his division.

Next year should see a large but inexperienced squad, since the team will lose Erwin Campbell, Oliver Campbell, Captain Art Clark, James Fauth, Bob Malone, Don Miles and Jack Piotrowski via graduation. Members who will return to bolster the squad next year are as follows: Bob Adams, Richard Carsten, Marcus Hmurovich, John Jendzel, Richard Kauchak, Jack Kekelik, Robert Matusko, Richard Miles, Robert Ringgenberg, Jack Tallman and Ray Zarhndt.

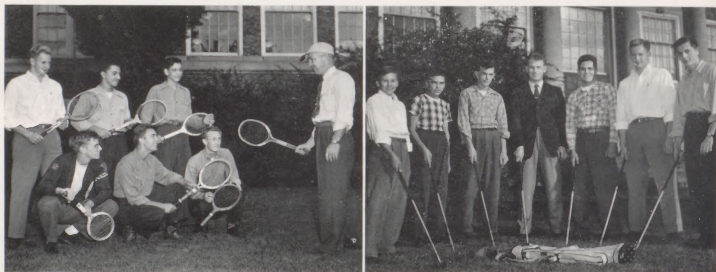

Row 1: Tallman, Jendzel, Kekelik, Miles, Clark, Malone, Fauth, Robert Adams, O. Campbell, Matusko.

Golf . . . Clark's golf squad, under the direction of Mr. Carlyle Snider, finished another eventful campaign. The linksmen competed with all regional schools and held their meets on several courses in this district. The squad will lose Chris Condes, Darrel Quigley, Bill Ringgenberg and Joe Wichlinski, all of whom will be graduated. The holdovers for next year's team include Andrew Hanusin, Bill Harder and Ed Schoon.

Harder, Hanusin, Wichlinski, Coach Carlyle Snider, Quigley, Schoon.

Standing: Quigley, Bokori, Leimbach.
Kneeling: Witt, Cox, Mitchell.

Tennis . . . Another busy season slipped by for the Pioneer tennis squad. The racketmen, under the direction of Mr. Edwin Martin, tangled with several schools of the Calumet region and played on various courts of this district. Frank Bokori, Bruce Cox and Darrel Quigley will be lost to the team after the 1949 graduation exercises, while Dick Cravens, Clifford Mitchell and Joe Gerba will return to bolster next year's aggregation.

Baseball . . . Clark's baseball squad, under the direction of Mr. Emerson Aldrich, enjoyed a successful season.

There were several returning veterans in the form of Norm Banas, Tony Brenkus, Orcst Catchur, Roger Horlbeck, Jonathan Kuzminski, Lodie Labda, Alex Lourik, George Owczarzak, Jack Piotrowski, Ed Siska, Don Vrabel and Jim Vrabel. The team also found capable performers in Joey Bilka and Buddy Golubiewski, both of whom were first year men.

The diamond squad's schedule included 18 games, nine of which were played at home and the others played on the road.

Prospects for next year's baseball team look bright with several of this year's starters returning to strengthen the lineup.

Standing: Coach Emerson Aldrich, Usselman, Smith, Banas, Labda, Langhor, Geffert, Myers, Etter, Manager Krause.
Kneeling: Kuzminski, Siska, Lourik, Catchur, Kender, Schudlak, Brenkus, Owczarzak.

"— A GOOD NAME IN DANCING"

While we're on the subject of dancing, (men only, please Sorry!) maybe we can brush up a bit and become really good at tripping the light fantastic. Dancing is not only a form of exercise, but it gives you poise and alertness. Everybody should dance, young and old. Good dancers are usually good humored, sharp mentally and trim physically. Self expression is a by-product of dancing.

1. Acquire proper position.

Hold your partner slightly in your right arm, not tensely. Your body should be parallel with hers, unless in a so-called "open position," in which case you both face the same direction side by side. Start with the left foot.

2. Develop a strong lead.

Lead her with the right hand and slightly with the left. You are the leader. Timid leaders usually finds himself following his partner, which causes 90% of the bumping on the dance floor. Bumping calls for apologies so remember to lead firmly with the right, light with the left and somewhat with the shoulders. These three make good coordination.

3. Don't dance monotonously.

Learn to turn as much one way as the other. For some turning around right is a bit more difficult than turning around left. Once you acquire both turns you will never forget them. Dancing is never forgotten. You can bore your partners to tears with endless march, march around the dance floor. Learn to combine steps, but care should be taken not to overdo it either.

4. Develop sense of rhythm.

Some people have more rhythm than others. If you lack it, guard against being ahead of the rhythm or behind it. The blame can sometimes be the orchestra's rhythm section.
